Yoga Instructors

TRACY MANN

Tracy founded Yoga Passage in 2003. A Judo practitioner for many years earlier in life, Tracy resonated with the art. He is a Shodan with the Judo Association of Saskatchewan, Judo Canada and the Kodokan (Japan). He has competed both provincially and nationally. Tracy graduated from the University of Saskatchewan with three degrees: Kinesiology, Commerce and the Arts.

GORD DESAUTELS

The inward journey began in the early 1990s with training in the martial art of Kung Fu, and later in teaching the hard and soft styles of the art. Around 2000, Gord followed through on a desire to explore the world of yoga which at the time was to complement the martial art training, in terms of increasing flexibility. In a very short while he came to realize that he was gaining more benefit than bargained for from a regular practice of yoga.
